

Top 5 Reasons to give grocery gift cards to this year's Food Round-Up

1. Gift cards are easy to store.

Our campuses no longer have storage space for thousands of cans of food arriving at one time. Gift cards can be stored in a desk and used as needed.

2. They're easier to distribute.

Sunrise staff won't have to try and organize redistribution of canned goods across the state to meet the needs of the different programs.

3. You can mail them directly to Sunrise.

Save gas and skip the drive to your nearest program to deliver food. Mail your gift cards directly to Sunrise at 300 Hope Street, P.O. Box 1429, Mt. Washington, KY 40047.

4. Sunrise can buy exactly what the kids need.

Sometimes the programs need peanut butter. Sometimes they need ketchup. Sometimes it's shampoo and spaghetti sauce. Gift cards allow Sunrise staff to purchase just what the kids need, when they need it. You'll no longer have to try to figure out what teenagers like to eat!

5. Gift cards don't spoil.

In addition to green beans and mac & cheese, kids need meat, milk, cheese, bread, ice cream, fresh fruit and other perishable foods. Sunrise staff can use gift cards to purchase items that just won't keep throughout the year.
